
Lana Yefimenko

Legislative Director

Lana has worked for the Colorado State Senate Minority Office, collaborating with Republican lawmakers on a variety of complex and important areas including legislative research, constituent work and fundraising.

Lana also worked for US Senator Wayne Allard's office in Englewood, Colorado.

Lana served as a state legislative liaison for a large health-care organization. In that capacity, she monitored state and federal health care legislation.

Lana was born and raised in Moscow, Russia; she speaks fluent Russian and she possesses an in-depth knowledge of world cultures and foreign policy.

Lana's family has a strong passion for public service; her father does good work for the Federal Aviation Administration and her mother served as a linguist for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Lana earned a B.A. in Political Science from Colorado University at Denver.

Lana is currently working on a graduate degree in Philosophy.

