
James P. Tatten J. D.

Lobbyist

Jim is a legislative and lobbying expert who has worked on complex state and federal legislative, regulatory and policy issues since 1988.

Jim is a trusted advisor to a number of state, regional and national leaders in business, nonprofits and health care.

Prior to co-founding Tatten Hannigan, Jim was the Director of State Advocacy for the nation's second largest hospital system. In his role, Jim was responsible for a legislative agenda in 19 states.

From 1996 to 2002, Jim was the lobbyist for Colorado's largest, non-governmental provider of health care, education and social services.

From 1988 to 1996, Jim was an attorney for a statewide, public-policy organization in Nebraska.

Jim is admitted to practice law before the Supreme Court of the State of Nebraska; United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit; and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Jim is a frequent speaker on legislation, lobbying and advocacy.
